

ART FOR SENIORS CLASS

AT WESTSIDE RECREATION CENTER

PROGRAM INFORMATION:

In this class, participants will work on learning new art skills and sharing ideas with one another. This is a social group setting with no instructor. Participants bring their own projects to the class to work on and share with others. Participants are responsible for their own supplies, and are free to work on whatever art project they desire. Participants usually work together on project ideas.

Participants have worked on projects such as: oil paintings, drawing, sculpturing, clay molding, flower arranging, basket weaving, straw hats, etc.

WHEN AND WHERE:

The class meets every Tuesday morning from 9:30am to 11:30am at Westside Recreation Center, located at 1001 NW 34th Street. Classes are ongoing, but do not meet during the summer months.

Participants are free to come and go as they please during the class time.

Classes take place in the arts & crafts room, which is equipped to handle messy art projects! Please note that all equipment, supplies and props must be removed from the center at the conclusion of each class.

PROGRAM COST:

CLASSES ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

Stop by Westside Recreation Center on Tuesday mornings when the class meets to fill out a registration form. Participants are only required to fill out the registration form once.

CONTACT INFORMATION:

For more information, please call Westside Recreation Center at 334-2186.

