A pre-application conference with the Historic Preservation Planner is required before the submission of a Certificate of Appropriateness (COA) application. A pre-application conference with the City of Gainesville’s Historic Preservation Board is optional.

For single-family structure, accessory structures and all other structures which require Historic Preservation Board review, there is an application fee. Fees vary by the type of building and change annually. Please consult with planning staff or online at planning.cityofgainesville.org to determine the amount of the application fees for your project. There is no fee for a staff approved Certificate of Appropriateness. Please consult the brochure “Living in a Historic District” and the Historic Preservation Rehabilitation and Design Guidelines for restoration & rehabilitation that is staff approvable. The COA review time period will not commence until your application is deemed complete by staff.

The application is due by 3:00 p.m. on the application deadline date as noted on the attached annual meeting and cut-off schedule. Staff can be contacted at 352.334.5022 or 352.334.5023.
