

2005 Award Recipients

Dr. Dan Canfield and his staff established Fishing for Success in 1998. This program introduces children of all ages to various aspects of fisheries and aquatic environmental sciences and has served over 15,000 Alachua County families annually.

Carol Thomas ~ she received her Water Safety Instructor training for the exclusive purpose of volunteering in the Adapted Aquatics Program, spending numerous hours improving her knowledge of the numerous disabilities she encountered within the program.