

Housing & Community Development Division Replacement Housing Program

Replacement Housing Program

The Replacement Housing Program (RHP) is a program that will address housing units that are infeasible to rehabilitate due to the existing major health and safety violations, and the exorbitant costs of repairs required to make these dwellings meet the minimum house code requirements. The program will assist eligible homeowners with demolishing the existing home and rebuilding a new home on the same site or other equivalent site. The house plans will be provided by the City of Gainesville Housing and Community Development Division.

Who is eligible?

Homeowners, who apply to the Housing Rehabilitation Program for housing repair assistance, who are income eligible, (see income chart on web page) and their homes are subsequently determined by Housing and Community Development Rehabilitation Specialist to be infeasible to rehabilitate.
