

SENIOR CERAMICS

AT WESTSIDE RECREATION CENTER

PROGRAM INFORMATION:

Do you like to create, shape and paint? Westside Recreation Center offers an adult group setting where you learn to fire and paint various types of ceramics. You can work at your own pace while socializing with others.

All skill levels are welcome. Class instructor Mavis Ratliff will teach you how to work on a ceramics project. Projects can be fired on the kiln at the center.

Participants are responsible for supplying their own ceramic projects, as well as all other supplies. The class takes a trip twice a year to various locations throughout north Florida to purchase ceramic supplies, or you may purchase supplies on your own.

WHEN AND WHERE:

The class meets every Monday morning from 9:00am to 12:00pm and Wednesday morning from 11:00am to 3:00pm, at Westside Recreation Center, located at 1001 NW 34th Street. Classes are ongoing throughout the year, except for the summer months.

Participants may join anytime. This class is for both beginners and experienced participants. The class takes place in the center's arts & crafts room, so participants may get as messy and creative as they like!

PROGRAM COST:

CLASSES ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

THERE IS A KILN FEE OF $5.00 PER FIRING, PAYABLE TO CITY OF GAINESVILLE. THE KILN GENERALLY FIRES ONCE PER MONTH.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

Stop by Westside Recreation Center on Monday or Wednesday mornings when the class meets to fill out a registration form. Participants are only required to fill out the registration form once.
