

2006 Award Recipients

Joannalyn Delacruz has volunteered in the City's Adapted Aquatics program since the summer of 2005 and has spent 20-30 hours a week focusing on instruction, planning and assisting other volunteers and students new to the program.

Jean Lansford has, for the past 2 ½ years, spent about 150 hours each year performing one-to-one visits with the Friends Across the Ages nursing home outreach program. She has also spent over 50 volunteer hours setting up a Recreation Garden at one of the local nursing homes and started "Letters to Soldiers" which helped nursing home residents write letters to our soldiers serving in Iraq.
